

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

Teaching Learning Process

The teaching learning process of the department comprises classroom teaching, proctorial classes, monthly tests, mandatory paper presentation for fifth and sixth semester students and monthly doubt clear classes.

All honours students and teachers of the department are connected through whatsapp groups for updates about academic information.

As the department has no smart class room, the ICT room is used by the department as per official timetable for seminars.

HOD PRANAB KUMAR DAS

Seminar Library

The department of English has a rich seminar library with more than 600 reference books. The honours students are regularly provided books by the professor incharge of seminar library, who is a faculty member of the department. The seminar papers of the students are preserved in the seminar library for future references.

Proctorial Class

As per the guidelines of DHE, Odisha, the department regularly conducts proctorial classes,. Each class has a proctor who takes weekly classes, maintains proctorial register which contains students profile and all the issues taken up in the proctorial classes.

Monthly Tests

Monthly test is conducted by the department for all the honours students and the students are provided evaluated answer scripts for self assessment and self improvement.

Achievements of the staff and students

Since the beginning of the department in the early 90s the department has marched a long distance with brilliant academic success of students. Despite the rural background, the success rate of the department is noteworthy.

Seminars

Seminars are conducted every week as per timetable and monthly seminars are conducted in the ICT room. Participation in the seminar is mandatory for all students.

Study tours and picnics

Study tours and picnics are conducted every year as a part of co-curricular activity. As students of literature these programs widen the mental horizon of the students.
