

DEPARTMENT OF SANSKRIT

Teaching Learning Process

1. Regular class room teaching as per Time Table.
2. Detecting the Low achievers from the commencement of Academic session.
3. Arrangement of extra classes for low achievers.
4. Proper assessment by monthly tests.
5. Proctorial class once in a week .
6. Unit wise Question Bank.
7. Conduction seminars , Group Discussion of Quiz competition in the Department.
8. Informing the students about success story of excel students.
9. Doubt clear class at the end of every unit.
10. Engagement of the ICT Room.

2. Lab facility - Nil

3. Seminar Library

The Department has a seminar Library which contains 872 books. Students borrow only two books at a time for 15 days. Members of teaching staff will borrow for 2 months.

4. Proctorial classes

Proctorial classes are engaged once in a week and a record is maintained.

5. Monthly Test:-

Monthly Test are held.

6.Achievement of staff and students:-

Prof Dr. S. Das Service star award by Governor for dedicated service in Scout and Guide.

7. Seminars:-

Seminars on Hons. Subjects are conducted at the end of every month.

8. Study Tour :- Conducted every year.

9. First Aid Box :- First Aid Box is kept in the Department.

10. Any other item that need to be reflected:-

Alumni meet is conducted . Sanskrit Day is celebrated with inter college (Block level ) competition.